SunRail to Operate Extra Night Train for Pulse Vigil June 12

Orlando- SunRail is adding extra service Monday night, June 12 to accommodate those attending Pulse one-year anniversary events, including the Pulse remembrance ceremony at Lake Eola Park. This is an addition to the regularly scheduled trains, which may also offer options for those traveling to and from the downtown Orlando area.

SunRail will run additional service out of Church Street station at 9:47 p.m. heading southbound, and at 10:15p.m. heading northbound from Sand Lake Road station.

- The southbound train stops at Orlando Health and Sand Lake Road stations
- The northbound train stops at all stations to the DeBary station, arriving at 11:18 p.m.
- Regular fares apply
- Please see the schedule at www.sunrail.com.

SunRail's transit partner, LNYX is also offering special service. For more information, go to <http://www.golynx.com/>.

In addition, the Florida Department of Transportation's I-4 Ultimate project is postponing construction activities that could impact travel in the downtown Orlando area, and is coordinating with the City of Orlando and Orlando Police.

SunRail offering the extra service in support of Orlando United Day – A Day of Love and Kindness, an initiative by the City of Orlando and Orange County Government, as well as the community.

Please be careful around trains, railroad crossings, and while at station platforms. Be smart. Be safe. For more information about SunRail, including fares, schedule and station locations, please visit www.sunrail.com.
