SunRail Service to be Resume Monday, October 14

Service will continue to be suspended October 11

ORLANDO, Fla. – SunRail commuter rail will resume normal service Monday morning, October 14, following regular schedules for all trains.

SunRail service will continue to be suspended Friday, October 11, as crews prepare the railway corridor for reopening following Hurricane Milton. Crews are inspecting the corridor to assess the storm's impact and resolve any issues to reinstate rail service for SunRail, as well as freight and Amtrak operations. Restoration of service includes reinstalling gates, removal of any obstruction on the railroad tracks, and conducting safety inspections.

View the full schedule at SunRail.com. For assistance with questions about tickets, fares, or schedules, please contact customer service Monday – Friday between 5:30 a.m. – 9:30 p.m. at 855-RAIL-411 (855-724-5411) or info@SunRail.com.

Learn about service updates and other SunRail information by following @RideSunRail on social media, visiting SunRail.com, and downloading the official SunRail Alerts app. Please be careful around trains, railroad crossings, and while at station platforms. Be smart. Be safe.

Media inquiries should be directed to the FDOT Public Information Office at FDOT-D5COMM@dot.state.fl.us or by phone at (386) 943-5593.
