WITH MAGIC GAME TICKET

ORLANDO MAGIC TICKET-HOLDERS CAN RIDE FREE SUNRAIL TRAIN-TO-THE-GAME

SunRail will add extended service for weeknights (Monday-Friday) when the Magic have home games. The additional southbound "late train" will give fans another travel choice to attend the game.

As part of the partnership, all Magic ticket holders may ride SunRail for free to and from games. Magic ticket holders can show their tickets, either hard copy or electronically, to SunRail conductors or fare inspector to access this benefit.

HOME GAMES

The Train-To-The-Game promotion will begin on October 13 when the Magic host the Cleveland Cavaliers. The promotion will run for a total of 30 weekday home games (listed below).
